

Committee: Disarmament and International Security (DISEC)

Topic: Reviewing the role of UN Peacekeepers in international conflicts

Main Submitted by: Turkey

Co-submitted by:

The Disarmament and International Security,

Aware of the purpose of the peacekeeping operations established under the United Nations Security Council based on the Charter of the United Nations for the maintenance of international peace and security,

Emphasizing the admonishment “to reiterating the need for a comprehensive approach to conflict prevention and sustainable peace, which comprises operational and structural measures for the prevention of armed conflict and addresses its root causes” stated in Security Council Resolution 2185, paragraph 2,

Reaffirming the principles of the peacekeeping forces, which are inclusive of consent of the parties, impartiality, and non-use of force, except in self-defense and defense of the mandate, is essential to the success of peacekeeping operations,

Fulfilling the recall of the Security Council Resolution 2167 “to resolve to strengthen the central role of the United Nations in peacekeeping and to ensure the effective functioning of the collective security system established by the United Nations,” stated in paragraph 5,

Keeping in mind the mandates of the peacekeeping operations and to “express deep concern about the serious and continuous allegations and under-reporting of sexual exploitation and abuse by United Nations peacekeepers, non-United Nations forces or any such personnel is unacceptable,” declared in the Security Council Resolution 2272, paragraph 5,

1. Reiterates the importance of harmony around the world excluding the differences between nationalities and diverse races;
2. Adopts the method to decrease the possibility of inciting war by the means of:
 - (a) Holding peace talks among the countries involved with hostile conflicts,

- (b) Reducing the frequency to settle disputes between nations by the usage of the peacekeeping forces in order to reduce hostilities;
3. Urges member states:
- (a) Maintaining rational ideology when implicated in a complicated situation among nations,
 - (b) Contributing more to the United Nations peacekeeping operation,
 - (i) To dispatch additional officers to replace the casualties caused by the rebellion of the peacekeeping suppression,
 - (ii) To increase the amount of weaponry to prevent fierce resistance of those armed groups which attempt to trigger conflicts,
 - (c) Sharing a harmonious relationship with nations located in nearby regions;
4. Establishes an evaluating system to measure the seriousness of a conflict occurred to prevent the squander of the peacekeeping operation by the means of:
- (a) To evaluate its scale of the conflicts,
 - (b) To estimate the casualties caused by battles and hostilities,
 - (c) To acknowledge the complication relationship with the nations involved, and the circumstances within the regional politics;
5. Implements an institution that is capable for nations involved in certain crisis which require the assistance of peacekeeping forces to use the force by the means of:
- (a) To discern whether or not for the United Nations Security Council to dispatch the peacekeeping forces,
 - (b) To prevent the restricted range of action available for the peacekeeping troops and improved it to some degree;
6. Assists neighbor countries which are in organizing a collaborated effort in order to achieve national harmony by providing essential military assistance and humanitarian aid;
7. Emphasizes the importance of cooperation with different organizations. For the purpose of boosting up the efficiency of those so as to speeding up the progress by the division of work;
8. Maintains the effectiveness of the mandates of peacekeeping operations by the means of:

- (a) To stress the violation by United Nations peacekeepers which undermines the implementation of peacekeeping mandates is not appropriate,
- (b) To implement zero tolerance policy on all forms of sexual exploitation and abuse by United Nations peacekeepers , non-United Nations or any of such international forces personnel,
- (c) To rapidly held a thorough investigation if the events mentioned above once occurred.